Introduction Of The Members Of The Executive Committee:

The Parent representatives and the teacher representatives introduced themselves.

Status report on Academic and Administrative Operations of 2022-23:

The chairperson mentioned that as per the government directives, the school prepared for the re-opening for an on- campus classes and a few of the Parents of 2021-22 came to the campus to check for the readiness and compliance with the COVID protocols.

The school gates were opened and learners reported to the campus with enormous support from the parent partners.

The Chairperson proudly mentioned about the 100% Class X Board exam results of 2021-22 and also about the Completion of Recognition Renewal.

The forum for the meeting was opened to share opinions:Opinion Of Parents:

- Applauded the teachers for ensuring Quality Online education.
- Online sessions were a learning for parents too.
- Concerned about Reading habits.
- Lack of punctuality due to irregular school habits during online sessions.
- Spoken English to be improved
- Games to be Conducted.

The opinion of the parents were taken and they were assured that the reading habits and spoken language would gradually improve.

The concept of Self-help should be trained at home and mentored at School. So the lack of Punctuality should not be entertained.

Opinion Of Teachers:

- Online Schooling Scenario changed completely for the learners and teachers.
- The greatest challenge for the teachers was to identify and bridge the learning gaps.
- Board copying and Completion of Class works, Time Management During Assessments, Exams were Quite challenging.
- Grooming Children to be sociable was also a challenging task.

Vote Of Thanks:

The Middle School representative thanked all the members of the executive committee for spending their valuable time to be a part of the meeting.

The Chairperson ended the first meeting of the PTA for the academic year 2022-23 after wishing everyone a Safe and Healthy stay.

The Chairperson proudly mentioned about the successful completion of the Annual Sports Day of 2022-23.

The process of Senior Secondary recognition is all set and soon the proceedings will commence.

Mental -Health programs were organized in order to immune the concentration level and to be sociable.

The forum for the meeting was opened to share opinions:

Opinion Of Parents:

- Bag Weight to be reduced.
- Discipline to be tightened.
- Extra Curricular Activities to be focused.

The opinion of the parents were taken and they were advised to send books according to the time-table only because almost all the classwork notes are kept in the class cupboard only.

Discipline that is taught at school should be taken care of at home too, only then it would be effective. As much as possible time is allocated for all extra curricular activities as NEP strongly emphasizes the same.

Opinion Of Teachers:

- Only Necessary stationery materials to be sent.
- Reading should also be done at home. Tuition classes are not that effective.

- Mobile games are a threat/ Parents to keep a check on their social media accounts.

Vote Of Thanks:

The Primary School representative thanked all the members of the executive committee for being cooperative throughout.

The Chairperson finally requested the parents to move out of the campus as soon as they pick their ward to ensure smooth dispersal at the end of the school session daily.

The second meeting of the PTA for the academic year 2022-23 came to an end on a high note.
